

The Monthly Observations

for September 2024

Welcome to Psychic & Energy Work's Observations for this month, "September 2024". They aim to help you make sense of things, life, as it unfolds. Implicit in this is intuition and how it exists to inform you. Numerology adds amazingly to this when it is used on a spiritual level.

These Observations can be worth reading with This Year's forecast. Do that here; scroll down to discover what's in store This Month; visit The Archives to review last or earlier months.

Before we begin...

"August" brought a busy schedule. Like many, it seems, I found it impossible to keep on top of my usual schedule. This month, therefore, I have created four videos that run through what I might have typed if I had the chance. I hope you enjoy them. Please let me know how they come across. That will help me decide whether to write to use video again next month. Thanks in advance!

Recapping last month...

"August" was full. Astrological shifts were partly to blame. The numerology flagged head energies and potent reminders about how our focus influences what we attract. "8"s and "5"s teamed up to make lives busier. If things got intense at times, you were on track. "7"s came, again, to help selves learn the power of mind and the importance of consciously monitoring frame of reference.

THIS "SEPTEMBER'S" PROFILE

Each month delivers its own dynamics which interact with the year's chart. Checking out the numbers in this respect can help explain what's going on. Profiles like this can boost resilience, stamina, confidence, trust in life. Outlined below are this "September's" key numbers followed by some Observations.

Oh and ps.... It might be worth reading my Observations about This New Year before you continue. They will reinforce what's discussed below and, hopefully, add value. Click here to read them and here if you'd rather listen to them.

This Month's Chart

	each year	in 2024
Birth Number - what we're here to learn about & exemplify again	9	2033/8
M.O. – the rhythms/lessons that will steer us to the birth number	40/4	143/8
Reality Number - the spiritual result(s) of doing such things	49/9	2176/7

This "September's" numerological tally....

Combined with the year's numerological profile, this month offers the following count. Examining a chart from this angle can help to explain what's going on. It doesn't, in itself, signal "good" or "bad". Life often delivers a mix of those wavelengths. What we can find initially jarring comes to guide us to better end states if we let it.

The tally for this "September" is:

Number	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Frequency	4	4	6	5	7	-	1	3	3	2

When a number presents three or more times, its energetic and spiritual themes (and lessons!) tend to increase. Bear in mind that the above doesn't talk about your personal chart at all. The numbers in that will reinforce the tally above. Get in contact if you'd like me to explore this with you. Whilst numerology is only one frame, it can help us make sense of dynamics as they play through.

Let's look at how this month could present for you.....

“9” and “2033/8” are this “September”'s birth numbers

closure's on its way. clarity is due

“8” is the vision and all the hoops self can need to jump through to really, practically sense, connect and manifest that. “2033” signals realisations. Do you sense how these two numbers could help you get clearer this month? “9” – the vibe that visits every “September” – will help people sort on all sorts of levels. To make visions real, it pays to create space for future and guidance to drop in. These words should never leave self positioning as couch potato.

Clearing Cards® help you (re-)connect

Life flows best when we let go of all egoic self. Mind can pull us off-track. Taking time to reboot makes a difference. Everything's linked and explained, assuming we allow that to happen. Psychic & Energy Work's Clearing Cards® carry two levels of message. Either or both can help you shift and intuit more. To purchase or read more, go through to Fran's Shop.

The M.O.s, this month, are “40/4” and “143/8”

“0” can make things uber, spiritually potent; “4”s build awareness and well-grounded self

We see seven “4”s this month – that’s a lot of repetition. Don’t be surprised if life helps to get your house in order. That can involve perceptual or habitual shifts. It can also find us physical or materially building in some way. “4” is planning, auditing, quality control – all of those vibes that help self fulfil destiny.

“8”, here again, could up the ante on busyness or fullness – rhythms and events that force folk to finally deal with, process, what life needs. I’ve mentioned before: “8” can feel like a Master Chef class in how it helps self sense what fits. We often hone our lists of acceptables and must do’s by being shown how some-thing or -one ain’t so right. Don’t be afraid to let go and come back to “I don’t know” this month. Create the space for Source to come on in and guide you further.

clearings, healings & meditations over video or phone

... not to mention readings and other forms of energy work. Life can present in ways that stun, often just as we need to stay grounded. Via phone, video or email, Fran tunes in to help you understand and clear. Sessions are recorded so that you can revisit the guidance you’re given.

“September” brings reality numbers of “49/4” and “2176/7” more head stuff is due. Do what you can to keep it in check.

“7”s continue to flavour things this month. With that come great lessons about wisdom, opinion, projection. It's often read as the spiritual number because it's all about connecting well intuitively. One might sense invisible dynamics but that doesn't necessarily mean they're divine in quality. This month could prompt us all to aim higher in an energetic, outcome and positioning sense. Don't be surprised if this presents in your world. We are each here to reach the highest of heights alone AND together.

What about your chart?

We each have a specific numerological profile that stems from our date of birth, full birth name and last birthday. I've outlined the collective rhythms for this month but have not talked about your personal chart. Readings that merge numbers with intuitive downloads can help you transition through all sorts of things. They're all about soul - linking to and channelling it more - and what can occur when we do this.

Click here to watch Fran's Monthly Update for September. It supplements the Monthly Observations. September's numerology points to the need to get approaches right – our own, other people's, our groups. Life in clusters can come with unwritten contracts and downloads we never signed up to. This Monthly Update talks about these dynamics and how to clear them energetically. 2024/8 is all about success, remember? Life's helping us all get to where we're spiritually and consciously meant to be.
